

Assisted Voluntary Returns, Reintegration and Open Centre in Attica (AVRR/OCAVRR)

ENGLISH

Thinking about returning home?

IOM can help you!

Apply for AVRR if you do not wish to stay in Greece any longer, including in the following circumstances:

- You don't have the legal documents to stay in Greece
- Your asylum application has been rejected
- You want to withdraw your asylum application

IOM can assist you, according to your needs, by:

- Providing individualized information about the situation in your home country and the benefits and assistance included in the programme
- Assisting with the issuance of your travel document
- Arranging transportation by plane to your home country, as well as onwards transportation within the country, if needed
- Assisting at the departure airport in Greece, as well as in transit and upon arrival, if needed
- Providing a one-time cash grant to you and, if applicable, family members travelling with you

If you are experiencing situations of particular vulnerability or specific needs (e.g. due to health needs or because you are an unaccompanied child), we will provide you with tailor made assistance during all stages of your return process.

Depending on specific eligibility criteria, you might benefit from in-kind reintegration assistance in your home country. This assistance may include small business set up, education, temporary accommodation assistance, vocational training, material and medical assistance

You can decide, at any time of the procedure, to leave the programme.

Contact IOM without any obligation, all assistance is free of charge.
